Substitute Habilitation Instructors

The Community Services Division has immediate openings for Substitute Habilitation Instructors.

HOURS: On call/As needed/Substitute
(Hours will be discussed during interview)

RESPONSIBILITIES: Must go into people's home to assist them with activities of daily living. The purpose is to help maintain or build the person's independence in their home. Instructor will work with children and adults. These people will have one or more of the five developmental disabilities. Patience and pleasant personality are a necessity. We do work closely with the family to achieve what is best for the individual we are serving.

QUALIFICATIONS: High school diploma or equivalent. Must be a team player, have good communication and writing skills, patient, energetic, and flexible. Must be willing to go into home situations that are less desirable with an open mind (i.e. homes kept less clean than your own, varying tempers and manners of family members, morals/ethics different than your own, etc.) A valid driver's license and use of personal vehicle will be necessary.
